

Biography

The baroque ensemble Concerto München has quickly established a reputation for excellence in the few years of its existence.

Founded by organist and harpsichordist, Johannes Berger, the young period instrument ensemble has dazzled audiences and critics with their exuberant virtuosity and infectious enthusiasm for the music they perform.

Outstanding individual musicianship and mutual respect within their collaboration are the hallmarks of this international ensemble. Their Members have won prizes and awards such as the Bruges Early Music competition, Grand Prix Bach de Lausanne, Biber competition St. Florian. Concerto München works regularly with world-famous choirs such as the Tölzer Knabenchor as well as with leading soloists.
